

Biography of Mr S Ginn

I have lived on the west side of the Hills with my family for the past 27 years and while both traffic and tree cover have increased the Hills remain a special place and need our protection for the enjoyment of future generations.

I am a solicitor practicing in Malvern, and for the past 18 years I have also been a trustee of a national charity based in Malvern, serving as chairman for the past 3 years.